

INTEGRITY RISING

7-Day Integrity Reset Challenge

Reclaim Your Authentic Self

"Integrity is choosing courage over comfort"

Welcome to Your Reset

This 7-day challenge is designed to help you reconnect with your authentic self, align your actions with your values, and build a foundation of integrity in your daily life. Each day focuses on a different aspect of living with integrity, from self-honesty to courageous action.

"When you live with integrity, you don't have to remember who you pretended to be."

How to Use This Guide

- Set aside 15-20 minutes each morning to read the day's focus
- Complete the journaling prompt with honest reflection
- Practice the daily action step throughout your day
- Return each evening to note what you observed
- Be gentle with yourself, this is a practice, not perfection

What You'll Need

- A journal or notebook
- A quiet space for reflection
- An open mind and willing heart

Day 1: Radical Self-Honesty

THE FOUNDATION OF INTEGRITY

Integrity begins with telling yourself the truth. Today, we practice noticing where we hide, minimize, or distort our reality to avoid discomfort.

Reflection: Where in your life are you telling yourself a story that isn't quite true? What truth have you been avoiding because it feels too heavy to hold?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

Write about a moment when you were completely honest with yourself. What did it feel like in your body? What changed after?

Today's Action

Choose one small thing you've been avoiding acknowledging. Name it out loud to yourself. Write it down. You don't need to fix it yet, just see it clearly.

Day 2: Identifying Your Core Values

WHAT MATTERS MOST

Living with integrity means knowing what you stand for. Today we excavate the values that live beneath the surface of your daily decisions.

Reflection: Think of a time you felt deeply proud of yourself. What value were you honoring in that moment? Think of a time you felt shame. What value were you betraying?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

List your top 5 values. For each one, write one sentence: "When I honor [value], I feel..." and "When I neglect [value], I feel..."

Today's Action

Look at your calendar from the past week. Notice where your time went. Does it reflect your stated values? Where is the gap?

Day 3: Boundaries as Integrity

PROTECTING WHAT MATTERS

Boundaries are not walls to keep people out. They are the edges of your integrity, where your values meet the world. Today we practice naming and holding your limits.

Reflection: Where do you say "yes" when you mean "no"? What are you afraid will happen if you set a boundary?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

Write a boundary you need to set that scares you. Then write: "I am allowed to want this. I am allowed to need this. My needs are not a burden."

Today's Action

Set one small boundary today. It can be as simple as saying "I need a moment" instead of immediately responding to a request. Notice how it feels.

Day 4: The Body Knows

SOMATIC WISDOM

Your body holds the truth that your mind sometimes tries to override. Today we tune into the somatic signals that guide us toward or away from integrity.

Reflection: When you think about a person or situation that drains you, where do you feel it in your body? When you think about something that lights you up, what changes?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

Do a body scan. Starting at your feet, move slowly upward. Where is there tension? Where is there ease? What is your body trying to tell you today?

Today's Action

Three times today, pause and ask your body: "What do you need right now?" Follow the answer, even if it seems small or silly.

Day 5: Repair and Accountability

MENDING WHAT'S BROKEN

Integrity isn't about never making mistakes. It's about how we respond when we do. Today we practice the courage of repair and the humility of accountability.

Reflection: Is there a relationship or situation where you owe someone an apology? What stops you from making amends? What would it cost you to repair it? What will it cost you not to?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

Write an apology letter to someone you've hurt, including yourself. You don't have to send it. Just let the words of repair exist on the page.

Today's Action

If there is a repair you can make today, make it. If the timing isn't right, write out what you would say and hold it with intention.

Day 6: Courage Over Comfort

CHOOSING INTEGRITY

Every day we face moments where we can choose what is easy or what is right. Today we practice choosing courage, even in small ways.

Reflection: Where in your life are you choosing comfort over courage? What would be possible if you chose differently?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

Describe the most courageous version of yourself. What does she/he/they do differently? What is one small step you can take toward that version today?

Today's Action

Do one thing today that requires courage. Speak up in a meeting. Share something vulnerable. Say no to something that doesn't align. Start the conversation you've been avoiding.

Day 7: Integration and Commitment

LIVING THE PRACTICE

The final day is not an ending but a beginning. Today we integrate what we've learned and make a conscious commitment to continue living with integrity.

Reflection: Looking back over this week, what shifted? What did you learn about yourself? What will you carry forward?

TODAY'S JOURNAL PROMPT

Write an integrity commitment to yourself. What are you promising? How will you remind yourself when things get hard? What support do you need?

Today's Action

Create a simple daily ritual to check in with your integrity. It can be a morning question, an evening review, or a phrase you repeat. Make it sustainable.

Your Continuing Practice

Congratulations on completing the 7-Day Integrity Reset Challenge. Remember, integrity is not a destination, it's a daily practice. Some days will be easier than others, and that's okay.

"Integrity is doing the right thing, even when no one is watching."
